

Facilities to Scheduled Caste people converted to Christianity

*Q.—195. Sri S. RAJAGOPAL [on behalf of Sri M. A. AMALOR-PAVAM (Bharathinagar)].—

Will the Minister for Social Welfare be pleased to state:—

(a) whether Government have received any representation that the Scheduled Caste people converted to Christianity be extended the same facilities that are extended to the Scheduled Castes ;

(b) if so, what steps the Government have taken so far in this behalf ?

A.—Sri G. NARAYANA GOWDA (Minister for Social Welfare).—

(a) No.

(b) Does not arise.

Sri S. RAJAGOPAL.—Sir, the reply to this question is 12th June 1967 but a representation has been given to Government in this matter on 15th March 1967. The Representation has been given to the Education Minister and the Chief Minister. So, this reply may not be exhaustive. Therefore, this question may be held over so that the Minister may collect the details from the Chief Minister and the Education Minister and then reply.

Mr. SPEAKER.—In that event the answer is not full. The Minister for Social Welfare may verify.

Sri G. NARAYANA GOWDA.—I will verify.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The hon. member may kindly give the details.

Probation and After-Care Associations

*Q.—359. Sri S. S. SHETTAR (Hubli).—

Will the Minister for Social Welfare be pleased to state:—

why the Government is not bearing whole cost of the Probation and After-care Associations in Bombay Karnatak just as in old Mysore area ?

A.—Sri G. NARAYANA GOWDA (Minister for Social Welfare).—

The Probation and After-care Associations in Bombay Karnatak Area are voluntary Organisations and as such Government is not required to meet the full expenditure. Similar Associations do not exist in the old Mysore area.
